SUBJECT: Delivery of a book and magazine articles to Allan Dulles

On April 17, 1959, a Doctor Clara Jolles Fonti came to the Consulate General. She had received a letter from a medical colleague (see translated copy attached) which seems to indicate that Mr. Allan Dulles is interested in having a copy of her book, "Eziopatogenesi del Cancro", for delivery to his brother's doctors. Dr. Fonti seems to be a reputable and respected person; she left three copies of her book, one for Mr. Allan Dulles, one for the President, and one for Consul General Rogers. I would like to have you send Mr. Dulles' copy, plus related magazine articles, to him.

18 MAY 1959

Dr. Clara J. Fonti

Dear Dr. Fonti:

I want you to know how much I appreciate your letter of April 24 offering your assistance in the care of my brother.

I have received the book and various pamphlets which you were so kind as to leave with the U. S. Consulate at Milan for forwarding. I have sent these materials on to the cancer specialists at the U. S. National Institutes of Health, where they are presently being studied for possible application in my brother's case. Either I or the doctors responsible for the Secretary's care will be in touch with you later if there is anything further you can do.

Again many thanks for your thoughtfulness.
With best wishes.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles

Letter dated 24 April 1959, from Dr. Clara J. Fonti, [redacted]
[redacted] wherein writer states that:

1. A few days before the abovementioned date she delivered to the US Consulate in Milan a copy of her book containing all her formulas and findings, which she has made available to the medical world.
2. She immediately complied with the request of Dr. Mary Voornemau, who had informed her that she had been asked by Mr. Allen Dulles and Dr. Johns to seek writer's intervention in Secretary John F. Dulles' case.
3. She does not know the patient's present state of health and, consequently, is unable to determine what, if any, therapy, may still prove beneficial to him.
4. She is at the complete disposal of the physicians attending Secretary Dulles.
